In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report and at the hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 37 year old United States citizen. He uses his parents address as a mailing address, but his father reported not having seen him for six to nine months. He has custody of his eight year old daughter who lives with his parents. He also has a sixteen year old child. He has been unemployed for two years and is supported by his girlfriend.
2. Defendant is charged with three counts of possession with intent to distribute between 50 and 500 grams of methamphetamine and one count of possession with intent to distribute between 5 and 50 grams of methamphetamine. He facts up to 40 years in prison.
3. Defendant has a criminal history that includes felony convictions for robbery and manufacture and deliver of a controlled substance and a misdemeanor conviction for theft. There is currently a warrant for his arrest outstanding in Montgomery County for failure to appear on a felony drug charge.
4. Defendant has an unstable residence and unstable employment history. He admits using drugs but denies having a drug problem. The arresting agents report that his parents were uncooperative in assisting them with locating defendant.
5. Defendant has been linked to illicit drug transactions taking place in his residence while young children were present in the house.
6. Defendant has recently attempted to avoid arrest by frequently moving from motel to motel in East Texas.
7. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumption that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
8. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
